

THE SOLDIERS' RETURN.

RETURN OF THE FIFTH REGIMENT NEW YORK STATE MILITIA.

THEY ARE RETURNING TO THE CITY—THE SOLDIERS' RETURN FROM THE FRONT—THE FIFTH REGIMENT NEW YORK STATE MILITIA—ARRIVAL AND RECEPTION OF THE REGIMENT IN THIS CITY.

The Fifth Regiment (Jefferson Guard) New York State Militia, commanded by Major J. H. Thompson, arrived in this city yesterday morning at eight o'clock, from Washington, having served out the principal part of their three months' term in that city and at Harper's Ferry, at their latest place they were under the command of General Patterson. The regiment is composed entirely of Germans by birth, and while in the service of the United States they have not lost that high character for daring chivalry which is the true characteristic of the German soldier. Their reception in this city was not so enthusiastic as it would have been had the regiment arrived the morning previous, when a military escort was five hours waiting for them on the Battery.

While passing through Baltimore the Fifth received an ovation similar to that extended to the Sixth Massachusetts regiment some time since, in the way of a body attack by the rabid secessionists of that city. The particulars of the affair appear to be as follows:—

The Fifth arrived in the city of Baltimore on Wednesday evening, at four o'clock, with the intention of taking the railroad cars to Philadelphia; but it was soon ascertained that no cars were in readiness to receive them; so they were obliged to wait until the morning. The Fifth had to wait during the night, and the next morning they were obliged to wait again, and the next day they were obliged to wait a third time. The Fifth had to wait during the night, and the next morning they were obliged to wait again, and the next day they were obliged to wait a third time. The Fifth had to wait during the night, and the next morning they were obliged to wait again, and the next day they were obliged to wait a third time.

The regiment arrived at the Jersey City ferry about two o'clock yesterday morning, but did not come on to this city until eight o'clock. A. M. The appearance of the Fifth regiment as they marched through the streets yesterday, was a sufficient guarantee of the service which they performed during the war. The Fifth arrived at the Jersey City ferry about two o'clock yesterday morning, but did not come on to this city until eight o'clock. A. M.

When the regiment arrived at the Battery, they were escorted by about one hundred New York Militia, mostly of the color of the Fifth. The Fifth arrived at the Jersey City ferry about two o'clock yesterday morning, but did not come on to this city until eight o'clock. A. M.

The members of the Eighth regiment met at their headquarters, Central Park, yesterday morning, for the purpose of being mustered out of the United States service. At half past nine Major Shepard commenced the mustering out, proceeding in the usual manner, taking the officers first, the engineer corps second and the regiment third. A number of the friends of the regiment were gathered at the Battery to see the dismissal of their acquaintances and relatives from the strict discipline of the army.

There is no doubt that many of the members of the Fifth will return to the scene of action in other regiments. The Fifth arrived at the Jersey City ferry about two o'clock yesterday morning, but did not come on to this city until eight o'clock. A. M.

THE TWELFTH NEW YORK REGIMENT. GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 41. HEADQUARTERS TWELFTH REGIMENT, N. Y. S. T., New York, August 2, 1861.

The regiment will parade in full uniform, fully armed and equipped, to be mustered out of the service of the United States, on Monday, August 5, at ten A. M. The regiment will be formed in Union square, right on Fourteenth street, at ten A. M. precisely. Field and staff will appear promptly. They will report to the Adjutant, on the ground in front of the City Hall, at ten o'clock. The regiment will be formed in Union square, right on Fourteenth street, at ten A. M. precisely.

THE FIRST REGIMENT FIRE ZOUAVES. Owing to a disagreement which exists in this regiment, they are expected to return to this city on Monday or Tuesday next. A committee, consisting of Mr. James J. McKim, Receiver of Taxes, and Mr. James J. Watkins, one of the Trustees of the Fire Department, have gone to Washington to facilitate matters and make arrangements for the return of the men. Several of the Fire Zouaves have already arrived in this city, having straggled away a few days and others are expected.

FATHER O'REILLY, OF THE SIXTY-NINTH. This excellent priest was entertained last Thursday evening by a number of personal and devoted friends, who solicited his presence in order that they might express to him in person their appreciation of his zeal, his fidelity and his courage as chaplain of the Sixty-ninth. The complement was entirely informal and improvised, and, probably, for that very reason the more appreciable. Among the gentlemen present were Captain T. F. Meagher, on Judge Daley, Rev. Fathers Tromer, Sloan and Conboy, (under whose auspices the feast was conducted), Judge Connor, Dr. Purcell, Con. Dever, R. J. Lalor, Michael Conboy, Eugene Sullivan, Esq., and others. Father O'Reilly, who is a Jesuit, leaves in a day or two for Europe, in compliance with the order of his superiors. He is still regarded with deep respect by the people, and his departure will be a loss to the city.

USTERING OUT OF THE SIXTY-NINTH REGIMENT. The Sixty-ninth regiment will be mustered out of service to-day, at the headquarters, Essex Market, and the various companies have been assigned to assemble at their musterings this morning preparatory thereto.

MOVEMENTS OF TROOPS IN NEW YORK.

THE LINCOLN CAVALRY.

This fine regiment is fast advancing towards completion. Eight companies are now mustered in, and are ready to proceed to Washington as soon as they receive their uniforms, about which there has been some unavoidable delay. The remaining four companies are fast filling up, and Colonel McReynolds hopes to have them full in a few days. The War Department has granted the Colonel permission to add another squadron of two companies to his regiment. These companies were recruited in Michigan; and the men who compose them are sturdy, well-to-do, experienced riders, and just the men to give a good account of themselves in the coming campaign. The Sixty-ninth, Seventy-first and Eighty-fourth of adventure and anxious to return to the front, will find in this regiment an excellent opening. About seventy-five young men of the right kind are wanted to fill the ranks of the Lincoln Cavalry, and it is hoped that the War Department will be able to get them in a few days. The Lincoln Cavalry might now be ready to take the field, if the Union Defense Committee had been its ally towards the regiment.

PRESENTATION OF HORSES AND EQUIPMENTS TO COLONEL McREYNOLDS, OF THE LINCOLN CAVALRY. A number of our prominent citizens have raised a fund for the purpose of purchasing a horse and equipments for Colonel McReynolds. The presentation will be made at the City Hall some day next week. Richard Basted, Esq., will make the presentation speech, after which the subscribers will dine at the Astor House.

THE PEOPLE'S ELSWORTH REGIMENT. When the gallant Colonel Elsworth, of the Fire Zouaves, fell at Alexandria, a movement was inaugurated through out New York State to form a regiment which should bear his name, and do service in the country's cause, thus doubly honoring his memory. This regiment, styled the People's Elsworth Regiment, has now been accepted by the Governor of the State, and will be among the first ordered away to the scene of war, under the new levy. The regiment was organized by the committee of the Elsworth State Association, and has now enrolled about five hundred members. Under the original terms of organization one member was to be elected from each town or ward of the State, but the city of New York is now allowed the privilege of choosing one hundred men to form a company of the regiment. Those desiring to aid the cause were also enlisted in their subscriptions to the sum of one dollar, but the generous are now permitted to contribute in kind. The regiment is now being organized, and it is believed that the first company will be ready to march in a few days. The regiment is now being organized, and it is believed that the first company will be ready to march in a few days.

THE STARS AND STRIPES ON ST. PAUL'S CHURCH. Mr. T. W. Davidson, a resident of this city, who has been called the "Hero of Trinity Church Cross," made another ascent to the spire of St. Paul's yesterday afternoon. He is now a captain in the Cameron Legion of New York.

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE. The United States revenue cutter Joe Lane, at San Francisco, and Jefferson Davis, at Oregon, have been ordered to New York.

KILPATRICK'S MOUNTED RANGERS. The recruiting for this regiment, under the supervision of Lieutenant Colonel Kilpatrick, a popular and experienced officer of the United States army, is progressing very rapidly. Over one hundred men have been enrolled. Recruits are accepted, sworn in, and furnished with uniforms, pay, rations and comfortable quarters at the Westchester House, upon signing the roll. Many of the men enrolled have already seen active service in the United States army. Those desiring to aid the cause are now being organized, and it is believed that the first company will be ready to march in a few days.

SCOTT RIFLE REGIMENT. This regiment is to be organized, uniformed and equipped as light infantry, and is commanded by Col. Macdonald, an officer of fine military abilities, whose experience has been acquired in foreign service. The officers thus far accepted are gentlemen of education and high social position; but what is of equal importance, their military qualifications are of a high order. Great care is exercised in the selection of recruits, and no man is accepted unless he is a native-born American, and possesses the necessary qualifications for the service. The regiment is now being organized, and it is believed that the first company will be ready to march in a few days.

THE MASSACHUSETTS SIXTH REGIMENT. The returned Sixth Massachusetts regiment left for Lowell this morning, where arrangements have been made for giving them a magnificent reception. The regiment was mustered out of the service of the United States, and will, after the reception, disperse to their homes. It is understood that a large portion will soon re-enlist for the war.

RECEPTION OF RETURNED OHIO TROOPS AT CINCINNATI. The four Cincinnati companies of the Second Ohio Volunteers arrived here this morning from Washington. Their reception was the grandest demonstration witnessed in Cincinnati. The Home Guard, Covington and Newport reserve, of the militia, and independent companies, were out in large force, and escorted the volunteers through the principal streets to Eighth Street, where they were met by Judge Storey in an eloquent address, and then partook of a banquet provided by the citizens. All along the line of march the cheering and enthusiasm were unbounded. The volunteers were completely covered with the bouquets and wreaths which were thrown at them, and the city was decorated with flags, and business almost entirely suspended.

THE THREE MONTHS VOLUNTEERS AT ST. LOUIS. Colonel Salomon's regiment, part of Colonel Sigel's, arrived from the southwest yesterday. The balance of Colonel Sigel's regiment and two Iowa regiments will probably arrive to-day. These troops will be disbanded here, their time having expired, but nearly all the two former regiments will re-enlist for the war. The Iowa regiments are being made to continue the organization of the reserve corps, or St. Louis Home Guard, beyond the time of their regular enlistment.

THE REGIMENT OF SCOTCH BEARERS. A spirit of self-sacrifice and devotion to the cause of the Union is manifested in this city, and in several wards of Brooklyn and Williamsburg, was held Thursday evening, at eight o'clock, at Schaefer's brewery, Seventh Avenue, near Seventeenth street. Mr. Adam Rodiger, of the Twenty-second ward, was called to the chair, and Mr. Adolf Lutz was elected Secretary. It was resolved to organize a regiment to be armed with scythes, and a delegation was appointed to proceed to Washington to urge the acceptance of the same, or at least of one company for each of the six wards. The resolution was unanimously adopted, calling upon all the German citizens to enlist in the Fremont regiment, which is to be organized by Colonel Louis and Lieutenant Colonel Mettenrich, both educated and intelligent officers.

SECOND FIRE ZOUAVES. This regiment now has its headquarters at 664 Broadway. Squads are sent from there to Camp Decker daily. Orders have been received to hurry on to Washington, and the men are now being mustered in and uniformed immediately. Some more good and able-bodied men are yet wanted to fill up, and those who wish to go must apply at the headquarters.

THE UNION GUARD. Major James M. Turner has resigned his position in the First Regiment N. Y. S. V. (now at Newport News), and has accepted the position of Adjutant of the Twenty-second ward of this city, and is now being mustered in and uniformed immediately. Some more good and able-bodied men are yet wanted to fill up, and those who wish to go must apply at the headquarters.

THE UNITED STATES VANGUARD. This regiment was organized under the auspices of Colonel William Hill Tibbalds, and is in want of a few men to fill up. Two recruiting depots are established, one at the corner of Prince and New streets, and the other at the corner of Canal and New streets.

THE THIRD IRISH REGIMENT. This regiment desires to return thanks to Messrs. Stearns, of the Astor House, Mr. C. Delmonico and Mr. Basted, for the assistance they have rendered to the regiment. The regiment is now being organized, and it is believed that the first company will be ready to march in a few days.

THE SECOND NEW JERSEY REGIMENT. This regiment was fully paid off yesterday, at the office of the Mayor, and the men are now being mustered out of the service of the United States.
